ATTENTION: FEDERAL COURT ENJOINS COLLECTION OF INFORMATION ON REGISTRATION FORMS.
On January 11, 2013, a federal court enjoined the Attorney General from collecting information pertaining to e-mail addresses, in networking/screen names on sex offender registration forms (DOJ registration forms (DOJ forms 8047, 8102). This enjoins these provisions of Proposition 35, the Californians Against Crime Act of 2004 (PAC 03-09-09). Registering law enforcement agencies should black out should not collect this information until further notice.

ATTENTION: Beginning January 1, 2013, the Department of risk assessment scores for sex offender registrants who are 290.03-290.09. For information relating to risk assessments State Authorized Risk Assessment Tool for Sex Offenders (SART).

Information contained in this site is based on information provided by other criminal justice entities. Pursuant to California law to provide specified information on persons required to register home addresses are displayed on more than 41,101 offenders included on the site with listing by ZIP Code, city, and county information on approximately 30,512 other offenders is not in online, but is known to law enforcement personnel. The Department of Justice is not responsible for information disclosed on alternate web sites. Some sex offender web sites retrieve information from non-official sources which may contain out-dated information. The information contained in this site is updated daily and extracted from the statewide database used exclusively by law enforcement.

Myths and Facts About Sexual Assault

Take this quiz regarding myths/facts about sexual assault. Let us see how much we know is true--and see how much of what we think has been based on the myths we have all heard about sexual assault and sex offenders. Take 5 minutes to complete the True or False Quiz:

- › Most men who commit sexual offenses do not know their victim.
- › Most sexual assaults are committed by someone of the same race as the victim.
- › Most child sexual abusers use physical force or threat to gain compliance from their victims.
- › Most child sexual abusers find their victims by frequenting such places as schoolyards and playgrounds.
- › Only men commit sexual assault.
- › Child sexual abusers are only attracted to children and are not capable of appropriate sexual relationships.
- › Victims of sexual assault are harmed only when offenders use force.
- › If a child does not tell anyone about the abuse, it is because he or she must have consented to it.
